Dr Clark has 50 years experience in orthodontic practice. In 1977 he developed Twin Blocks for mandibular advancement, and in 2004, TransForce Lingual Appliances for arch development. He is author of ‘Twin Block Therapy; Applications in Dentofacial Orthopaedics’, and e-books “Advances in Fixed Appliance Technique” and “Advances in Functional Therapy and Dentofacial Orthopaedics”.

Dr Clark is the first recipient of an award of distinction from the British Orthodontic Society for an outstanding contribution to the specialty of orthodontics. In 2008 he received an award from the International Functional Association for personal outstanding international service to functionalism and orthodontics.